

SUN EDITORIAL:

Our recommendation for justice of the peace: Chris Lee

Mon, Oct 13, 2008

Justices of the peace in Nevada play a crucial role in the legal system. They conduct preliminary hearings in criminal cases, determining whether there is enough evidence to hold someone for trial, and handle a variety of criminal and civil cases.

Former prosecutor Chris Lee is running for North Las Vegas Justice of the Peace Department 3. A former prosecutor in the Clark County District Attorney's Office, Lee is now the deputy secretary of state for Southern Nevada. He has strong experience as a trial attorney and knows how Justice Court should work. The Sun endorses Chris Lee.