Chris Lee scores major endorsements

Lee, former prosecutor, gains early endorsements from public safety groups in his bid for Justice of the Peace

NORTH LAS VEGAS, NV—Chris Lee, candidate for Justice of the Peace, North Las Vegas Township, has won the endorsements of every major police and public safety group in Southern Nevada.

“These endorsements send a strong message to voters in North Las Vegas that I have the training, experience and ability to get the job done as judge,” Lee said. “At a time when many North Las Vegas residents tell me crime is their number one concern, I believe the backing of our police lets residents know I am just as concerned, and ready to go to work for them.”

Lee, a former Deputy District Attorney and prosecutor and the current Deputy Secretary of State for Southern Nevada, had a strong record of prosecuting violent crimes on specialty prosecution units. Now as Deputy Secretary of State he has made stopping white collar criminals who target seniors a priority.

The groups endorsing Lee to date are . . .

- North Las Vegas Police Officers Association

- North Las Vegas Fire Fighters
- Las Vegas Police Protective Association
- Nevada State Law Enforcement Officers' Association
- Clark County Prosecutors Association
- Clark County Courts Deputy Marshals Association

The endorsement letters are posted on Lee's website,
