JP candidate Chris Lee earns three key endorsements New candidate wins support of North Las Vegas police, firefighters and city employees

Chris Lee, candidate for North Las Vegas Justice of the Peace, Department 2 earned the endorsements of three key groups in his election bid it was announced today. The three groups, North Las Vegas police, firefighters and city employees, pledged their support for the prosecutor and Deputy District Attorney and emphasized Lee's experience and commitment.

"The commitment you have expressed makes you an outstanding choice for Justice of the Peace," wrote Dave Smith, president of the North Las Vegas Police Officers Association in his letter of endorsement to Lee.

"The history of honor and integrity in [Lee's] career as an attorney is an added asset to the City of North Las Vegas," stated Jeffrey Hurley, President of the North Las Vegas Firefighters, in that group's endorsement document.

"We admire your enthusiasm for the job and for the future of North Las Vegas," said Gary Mauger, Secretary-Treasurer and CEO of Teamsters Local 14 representing North Las Vegas City Employees.

Lee, commenting on the trio of endorsements, said, "As a first-time candidate it is very humbling to earn these endorsements from the men and women who work on the front lines of service to our community. I'm committed to work even harder to win this race and be a good judge because police officers, firefighters and city employees are standing with me. I won't let them down, and I won't let down the citizens of North Las Vegas."
