Chris Lee, NLV Justice of the Peace candidate gains endorsement of primary opponent

Maria Perez gives her enthusiastic support to Chris Lee as “the best possible candidate”

Chris Lee, candidate for North Las Vegas Justice of the Peace, Department 2, gained an important endorsement today as one of his primary opponents, Maria Perez, announced her support for Lee in the upcoming general election.

“As an attorney, a wife, and as an expectant mother, I want the best possible candidate on the bench as our next Justice of the Peace,” Perez wrote in her endorsement letter. “Based on my research and personal knowledge, the choice for me is clear. I am enthusiastically supporting and endorsing Chris Lee for North Las Vegas Justice of the Peace, Department 2.”

Perez noted that Lee was the top vote getter in the primary election, a three-way race in which Lee captured 42% of the vote as a first-time candidate facing both Perez and the incumbent.

“Maria and I ran clean, positive campaigns in the primary,” Lee said, noting his appreciation. “Our visions for Justice of the Peace, North Las Vegas are similar, including a safer community, a fair court system and more support for our law enforcement. I am grateful for Maria's endorsement and support."

Lee previously gained the endorsements of the North Las Vegas Police Officers Association, the North Las Vegas Fire Fighters Association, and the North Las Vegas City Employees Association, the three groups working directly with the public in the North Las Vegas Township.

Lee has police support in his bid for office and the endorsements of the Southern Nevada Central Labor Council and the Nevada State AFL-CIO. Full information about Chris Lee can be found at www.chrisleeforjudge.com.
